Spring 2018 Course Descriptions

Instructor: Terence Hoagwood
Course: 219
Title: Literature and the Other Arts

Description: "Imaginative literature in conversation with aesthetic principles and such other arts as painting, sculpture, architecture, film and music" (Texas A&M University Undergraduate Catalog). "Creative Arts – Courses in this category focus on the appreciation and analysis of creative artifacts and works of the human imagination. Courses involve the synthesis and interpretation of artistic expression and enable critical, creative, and innovative communication about works of art" (Texas A&M University Core Curriculum). We will study works in multiple media, including paintings, drawings, woodcuts, engraving, poetry, prose fiction, photography, drama, cinema, and digital simulation, with emphasis on intermediation and on the differences, in form and meaning, among media.

Proposed Readings: The readings and works of visual art that we will study range from the fifteenth century to the present, and will include works by Alciato, Dürer, Gillray, Blake, Rossetti, Lange, Steinbeck, Morris, Hellman, and Wyler.
