Spring 2018 Course Descriptions

Instructor: Craig Kallendorf
Course: ENGL 221
Title: World Literature I

Description: Major works of literature from antiquity through the early Renaissance, placed into their broader cultural context, with epic, drama, and poetry linked to the intellectual history and art of the culture in which it was produced.

Proposed Readings: Homer, Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, Virgil, Dante, Boccaccio