

Curriculum Vitae

Jiwon Choi

1800 Holleman Dr. Apt 120

College Station, TX 77840

Phone: 213-249-1636

E-mail: seryeska@tamu.edu

Education

---

PhD, English Literature, Texas A&M University, Fall 2018–

PhD, English Literature, Seoul National University, Unfinished

MA, English Literature, Seoul National University, 2015

BA, (Dual Major) French and English Literature, Seoul National University, 2013

Scholarships

---

Graduate Assistant of Research, Research Assistant of World Shakespeare Bibliography, Texas A&M University, Fall 2018–Spring 2019

Lecture and Research Scholarship, a tuition waiver and a monthly stipend, Seoul National University, 2016–July 2018

College English Teaching Assistantship, a monthly stipend, Seoul National University, 2013–2015

Minum Humanities Scholarship, an extramural grant by Minumsa Publishing Group, South Korea, 2011

Superior Academic Performance Scholarship, Seoul National University, 2008–2012

Teaching Experience

---

SNU College English Speaking Lab Tutor, Spring 2018

SNU College English Writing Class Teaching Assistant, Winter 2017

SNU College English Writing Lab Tutor, Spring 2014–Spring 2015

SNU College English Teaching Assistant, 2013

SNU Phronesis Nanoome (University Official Volunteer Corps), teaching English to elementary school students, Spring 2012

Works

---

Master's Thesis

“Ontological Encounters in the World of Physics: Virginia Woolf’s To the Lighthouse”

Conference Paper

“Encountering the Light of Relativity in To the Lighthouse,” International conference of the English Language and Literature Association of Korea, Busan, South Korea, December 2015

“‘Don’t hide among rags’: Clothes and Identity in Virginia Woolf’s Between the Acts,” The 3rd Korea-Japan Virginia Woolf Conference, Seoul, South Korea, August 2016

Research Interests

---

19th and 20th Century Anglophone Literature and Culture

20th and 21st Century Studies

Transnational Modernism

Coming-of-age Novels

Gender Studies

Science Studies

Continental Philosophy and Ethical Theory