

Curriculum Vitae: Seokyeong Choi

E-Mail: cjiml@tamu.edu

Education

- 2016 ~ Texas A&M University, Texas
- 2013- Seoul National University Graduate School, Seoul, South Korea
Completed the required coursework of Ph.D. in English
- 2011-2012 Clark University, Worcester, MA
M.A. in English
Thesis: "Fiction's Ethic: Conversation with Modernism in Ian McEwan's Atonement."
Thesis Director: SunHee Kim Gertz, Ph.D.
- 2009-2011 Seoul National University Graduate School, Seoul, South Korea
M.A. in English Literature
Thesis: "Madness and Despair Are a Force: A Study on Irony in Joseph Conrad's The Secret Agent."
Thesis Director: Youngjoo Son, Ph.D.
- 2005-2009 Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, Seoul, South Korea
B.A. in British and American Literature and French
- 2007-2008 Université de Savoie Chambéry, France
Science of Humanity (LLSH), exchange student

Academic Honors

- 2013-2015 Lecture & Research Support Scholarship
English Department, Seoul National University
- 2014 College of the Humanities, Seoul National University
Funding to attend a conference in Minnesota (see below)
- 2011-12 Clark University, M.A. Program in English
Tuition Fellowship
- 2010 National Humanities and Social Sciences Graduate Research Scholarship
National Foundation Research of Korea

Teaching Experience

- 2017~ English Department, Texas A&M University
Instructor: taught ENGL 104, ENGL 210

- 2016 English Department, Texas A&M University
Teaching Assistant: graded ENGL 206, ENGL 201
- 2015 College English Internship Training Program at SNU
Completed
- 2015- College English Program at Seoul National University
Speaking Lab Instructor
Took a tutor-training workshop.
Duties include English communication classes to undergraduates on a weekly basis.
- 2015- College English Program at Seoul National University
Teaching Assistant
Duties include proctoring exams and evaluating and commenting on essays written in English.
- 2013-2015 English Department, Seoul National University
Teaching Assistant, via a GSI scholarship
Duties include proctoring exams and evaluating and commenting on essays written in English.
- 2010, 2011 College English Program at Seoul National University
Tutor at English Writing Center
Took a tutor-training workshop.
Helped students with their essays, taught basic composition skills to develop their writing, and reviewed and graded their revised work.

Presentations

- 2014 “The Female Muse and Verse: Poetic Imagination and Its Transcendental Power in Anna Letitia Barbauld’s “Washing-Day.” Annual Northern Plains Conference on Early British Literature, St. Cloud, Minnesota, 4-5 April.
Funded by the College of the Humanities, Seoul National University
- 2013 “Exclaiming Self-Difference: Politics of Deconstructing Universality” English Language and Literature Association of Korea International Conference, Sookmyung Women’s University, South Korea, 7-9 November.
- 2012 “Love as Crisis vs. Love as Awakening in The Ballad of the Sad Café.” American Comparative Literature Association, Brown University, RI, 30 March – 1 April

Languages

Reading and Speaking: French, Certification: DELF B2 (2009)
Reading, Speaking, and Writing: English, Korean (native speaker)