

Hunter Plummer

Department of English

4227 TAMU

College Station, Texas 77843-4227

plum1429@tamu.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. English, Texas A&M University, degree expected May 2022

M.A. English with interdisciplinary certificate in nineteenth century studies, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, May 2017. Thesis: “A City Room of One’s Own: Elizabeth Jordan, Henry James, and the New Woman Journalist.”

B.A. English with minor in History, Asbury University, May 2015.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Aug. 2017—present Teaching Assistant, Department of English, Texas A&M University.

Courses Taught: Rhetoric and Composition, Technical Business Writing (including online); one section per semester

Aug. 2016—Apr. 2017 Teaching Assistant, Department of English, University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Courses Taught: Rhetoric as Argument, two sections per semester.

RESEARCH AREAS

Late-Nineteenth Century American and British Literature; Women’s Literature; Journalism; 20th Century Drama

PRESENTATIONS

“Small House of Princess Tuptim: Adapting Uncle Tom’s Cabin in The King and I.” 42nd Annual Comparative Drama Conference, Orlando, FL, April 2018.

“Playing the Newspaperwoman: Willa Cather’s Letters as Female Journalist Narratives.” 16th

International Willa Cather Seminar, Willa Cather Foundation, Pittsburgh, PA,

June 2017.

GRANTS AND AWARDS

Student Travel Grant. International Willa Cather Seminar. Willa Cather Foundation, June 2017.