Instructor: Jennifer Wollock
Course: ENGL 330
Title: Arthurian Literature

Description: An introduction to the legend of King Arthur and Arthurian literature from the beginning (around 500 CE) to the present. No previous reading of Arthurian literature is expected.

Section 200 is an embedded honors section featuring advanced research and small group discussion opportunities.

Proposed Readings: Readings will include early Latin and Welsh stories of Arthur, Marie de France’s Lanval, Chrétien de Troyes' Knight of the Cart, Chaucer's Wife of Bath's Tale, Sir Thomas Malory, Tennyson's Idylls of the King, as well as Arthurian films.