Spring 2020 Course Description

Instructor: William Bedford Clark
Course: ENGL 227
Title: American Literature: Beginnings to the Civil War

Description: A survey of significant canonical authors and works designed to illustrate the making of the American literary mind from the earliest Anglo colonization up to the Civil War, with a special emphasis on close reading and critical thinking.