Spring 2020 Course Description

Instructor: Dr. Portia Owusu
Course: ENGL/AFST 205
Title: Introduction to Africana Literature

Description: This course focuses on works, literary movements and genres of authors of African descent in the Americas, Europe and Africa. The course will explore current trends in cultural productions from Africa and the diaspora. It will also investigate the historical and geographical specificities that have shaped flows of ideas, people and capital, and which informs literature and film in Africa.

Proposed Readings: