

Fall 2020 Course Description

Instructor: Courtney Price

Course: ENGL 212.501

Title: Shakespeare

Description: Shipwrecks, poisoned goblets, bear attacks – Shakespeare has got it all! In this course, you'll be introduced to one of the world's greatest playwrights, poets, and plagiarizers through a selection of works spanning the Bard's lifetime. Together, we'll uncover how Shakespeare's works expose the instabilities of language and power in both his own time period and ours. We'll hone our close reading skills, sharpen our critical thinking abilities, and even establish our own literary coteries. Join our merry company this fall!
